Dedication

What is the 'supreme law of the land?' ...
I'll get a good man for this question,
my brother ... "is when" - that's 10 off! ...
Baker v. Carr ... Miranda v. Arizona
... the test will include 35 multiple guess
... the rest of you buzzards ... by the 'grace of God' and the "grace of Earl" ...

A distinguished gentleman who exemplifies Presbyterian College in his integrity, service, and devotion ... the Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1976 PaC SaC to MR. EARL BUGGLE HALSALL.

Earl Buggle Halsall

With each new year,
as with each new day, come many different events . . .

... activities

... acquaintances

... and friends.

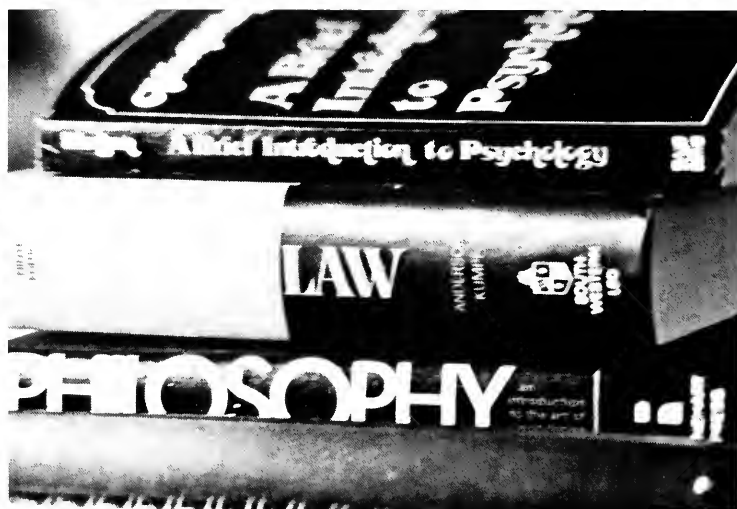

However, many old scenes greet us as we re-enter the familiar world of the PC community to begin a new year in the fall.

It is a combination of the old, the familiar . . .

. . . the new, and the different which makes our year at PC a unique one.

NOTICE
THIS AREA WILL BE LOCKED DAILY
AT 10:30 P.M.

The people of PC are the most important part of its inner soul.

All people are part of PC, give something to it, and take something from it.
Their thoughts and expressions blend to form the unique personality of PC.

Leisure is an important part of life on the PC campus. On and off-campus activities provide relaxation from the daily strains of the college routine.

Through living and sharing day by day,
we each gather a different version of what Presbyterian College means to us.

Remembrance falls on what has been.*

John S. Glover (1913-1975)

John Sobey Glover, associate professor emeritus of foreign languages, died on July 31 after an extended fight with cancer. Mr. Glover taught at PC for 28 years, and was forced to retire early last April because of illness. Long considered one of PC's more effective professors, he received the 1970 Distinguished Service Award of the board of visitors and the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award presented by the Alumni Association. Known for his "unobtrusive but sincere interest in the individual," Glover was recognized by students for his fairness and concern.

Billy Tiller (1933-1975)

William Floyd (Billy) Tiller, popular associate Athletic Director and assistant football coach, died June 17, 1975 of cancer. Tiller had coached at PC for the last 13 years. His favorite expression was "We never lost a game. Time just ran out on us." Wherever he went, Coach Tiller was an ambassador of goodwill for PC. He had become a popular after-dinner speaker, known for his home-spun humor. Tiller graduated from PC in 1955 and was active while a student here. He was a Blue Key campus leader during his years at PC. Tiller had coached at Sumter's Hillcrest High School and at Manning High School before joining the Blue Hose staff.

Dan Yarborough (1907-1976)

Daniel A. Yarborough, Sr., the PaC SaC photographer for many years, died January 4, 1976. Mr. Yarborough was owner to the Yarborough Studio in Clinton and was past president of the South Carolina Professional Photographers Association. An avid PC fan, Mr. Yarborough was a member of the class of 1929 at PC. At the time of his death, he still worked very closely with PC. Mr. Yarborough was perhaps best known to PC students as the photographer who took their class pictures for the PaC SaC. However, he served the yearbook staff in many other ways. Mr. Yarborough took many of the photographs used in the PaC SaC and could be seen at most major events on campus. He often worked long hours in order to help the staff meet deadlines.

Editor's Epilogue

Sometimes an editor finds it hard to imagine that hundreds of layout sheets, stacks of pictures, and a multitude of vague ideas can emerge into the finished product known as a yearbook. But, somehow, it happens — although not overnight and not without a great deal of work on the part of many people.

The production of an annual depends on a number of factors; an editor surely cannot do the job alone. I feel very fortunate in having had one of the largest staffs ever — about 30 hard-working people. The staff sought to produce a yearbook which would be a little different from previous ones. We were confronted with several obstacles from the beginning. Because of a financial cutback, we were forced to reduce the total number of pages and omit color photographs. We also suffered a great loss in January. Dan Yarborough, the PaC SaC photographer for many years, died suddenly.

But, we managed to overcome these obstacles thanks to the efforts of the staff. Two staff members deserve special mention. Our student photographers, John Arnold and John Weiss, have shown their never-ending dependability throughout the year. From last minute requests (demands?) to rushed deadlines, they have been very helpful.

The gang at Jacobs Press has been a most cooperative group when dealing with PC students about details for the yearbook. Their knowledge, guidance, and willingness to help us has been very much appreciated.

We hope that you see a little bit of yourself in our presentation of "a day in the life of PC," and that you remember the 1975-76 year at Presbyterian College for years to come.

Reminisce . . . enjoy.
